

Subject: Important Update: Regarding change in the Venue of an International Conference cum Workshop on Orchids & Orchid Show to Panjab University, Chandigarh (India) during March 13-15, 2026.

Dear Fellow Orchidist,

We are writing to inform you of an important update regarding the change in the Venue for the upcoming International Conference cum Workshop on Orchid Diversity, Conservation and Resource Development in Changing Global Climate: Perspectives on Medicinal, Floricultural and Economic Potential & Orchid Show which was earlier planned at Coimbatore (Tamil Nadu) India. The Conference will now take place at Panjab University, Chandigarh- 160 014 (India) during March 13-15, 2026.

We apologize for any inconvenience this change may cause and appreciate your understanding. We believe the new Venue at Panjab University, Chandigarh (India) will provide an excellent setting for the Event, offering enhanced facilities and a more accessible location for all the participants.

We are excited to host you at the new Venue and look forward to your active participation. Thank you once again for your understanding and continued support.

With kind regards,

Yours Sincerely

Promila Pathak
